

Netop Remote Control: Secure tunnel for remote application port access and control

Article Number: 231 | Last Updated: Wed, Sep 5, 2012 6:11 PM

The Tunnel establishes a secure connection between the Guest and Host and allows application ports to be redirected from the Host to the Guest through the Tunnel.

This allows the Guest to run local applications while interacting with the connected Host and without having to remotely control the Host machine.

Posted - Tue, Feb 14, 2012 9:34 AM.

Online URL:

<https://kb.netop.com/article/netop-remote-control-secure-tunnel-for-remote-application-port-access-and-control-231.h>