The screenshot shows the Netop Vision app's permissions page. At the top, there is a green eye icon and the text "Netop Vision Has some account access". Below this, under the heading "Has access to:", there are two sections: "Basic account info" and "Additional access". The "Basic account info" section lists "View your email address" and "See your personal info, including any personal info you've made publicly available". The "Additional access" section is currently empty.
